In September 2004, Sidney E. Frank, a member of the class of 1942, made a gift of $100 million dollars to Brown University— the largest gift in the University’s history—to establish the Sidney E. Frank Endowed Scholarship Fund. The Fund provides Scholarships for roughly 130 Brown undergraduates whose family income demonstrates the greatest financial need. Events have been developed since the program’s inception based on interests expressed by Scholars. Programming now takes place during the entire academic year. In 2014, the class of 2009—including the first Sidney E. Frank Scholars—had their 5th year reunion, and helped celebrate the Class of 2014 at the Sidney E. Frank Scholars Commencement Reception, hosted each year by Sidney E. Frank’s daughter Cathy Frank Halstead. The coming together of alumni back for reunion, graduating seniors, and their families at the Commencement Reception is now a tradition.
