- Royce Fellowship Program – Deadline February 13, 2015 at 5:00 PM
  - http://brown.edu/academics/college/fellowships/royce
  - Every spring, up to twenty students at Brown are inducted into the Society of Royce Fellows, receiving an award of up to $4,000 to pursue a project of their own design. The program seeks to enable undergraduates to explore their developing interests and passions and enhance the ideals of Brown’s innovative open curriculum.

- Undergraduate Teaching and Research Awards (UTRA) – Deadline February 10, 2015 at 5:00 PM
  - http://www.brown.edu/academics/college/fellowships/utra/
  - UTRA is the umbrella term for collaborative work with a faculty member. UTRAs provide students with opportunities to work closely in research situations with faculty members, to participate integrally in the process of course development and revision, and to experience the work of the college directly.
• International Affairs Undergraduate Student Fund – TBD (possibly April 2015)
  - http://www.brown.edu/about/administration/international-affairs/undergraduate-students
  - “The International Affairs Undergraduate Student Fund can support many diverse interests by providing funding for projects, on-campus events, or short-term travel that is directly related to an applicant’s academic career at Brown, and/or a future professional career path, that is international in scope.”
  - Maximum award is $500

• RAB Grants – Rolling deadline
  - http://brown.edu/Administration/Dean_of_the_College/research/supplemental_grants.php
  - Research at Brown (RAB) grants support student-initiated research projects in the sciences, the humanities, and the fine arts. The Program supports student research and travel to present papers at conferences. Students may submit proposals for up to $500 of funding at any time. Applications are considered on a rolling basis.
  - The RAB application will open in mid-January for funding requests for the Spring Semester.

• Brown LINK Awards (formerly Brown Internship Award Program) – Deadline March 6, 2015 by 12pm and April 17, 2015 by 12pm Students with internships outside of the U.S. must apply in the first round
  - http://www.brown.edu/campus-life/support/careerlab/link
  - Each year, Brown awards stipends to rising seniors and juniors pursuing unpaid or low-paying summer internships. Students must apply for or secure an internship that is unpaid or that pays $1,000 or less before applying for funds.
  - Brown LINK is a funded $3,000 award. The Summer Earnings Waiver (SEW) waives the summer earning requirement for students on financial aid.

- The Gabii Project (Central Italy) – Application deadline February 28, 2015
  - http://sitemaker.umich.edu/gabiiproject/home
  - June 28 until August 1, 2015
  - The Gabii project focuses on the ancient Latin city of Gabii, neighbor, ally and rival to Rome in the first millennium BCE. Students work on-site Monday through Friday from 7:30am-4:00pm. Excavation is supplemented by lab time working with ceramics, environmental sampling, flotation, topography, conservation and documentation.
  - Brown contact: Sam Lash (samantha_lash@brown.edu)
- Molise (S Italy): temple of S. Giovanni in Galdo
  - Field survey project in the territory of the Latin colony of Aesernia (founded 263 BC, modern Isernia), directed by Tesse Stek
  - Excavation of a Roman Republican rural temple site: this is likely to become a formal field-school with some classes etc, but until that is clearer this project is most suitable for students with some experience. All in English, some fee may be charged. Dutch, English, Italian participants
  - Project dates July or August. The regional survey fieldwork takes place in September.
  - Brown contact: Peter Van Dommelen (peter_van_dommelen@brown.edu) • Pani Loriga (Santadi): Italy, S. Sardinia
  o Project by CNR-ISCIMA, Italian National Research Institute, directed by Massimo Botto
  o No project website but see http://www.fastionline.org/docs/FOLDER-it-2010-175.pdf
  o No formal training but good supervision of participants: mostly Italian, including some Sardinians, as well as Spanish and Portuguese. Experience and working knowledge of Italian or Spanish required; no fee and (excellent) accommodation and food provided. Fieldwork between late May to mid July (usually students go for 3-4 weeks)
  o Brown contact: Peter Van Dommelen (peter_van_dommelen@brown.edu)

• Poggio Civitata Excavation Project (Murlo)
  o http://poggiocivitate.classics.umass.edu/overview.asp
  o PI: Tony Tuck (University of Massachusetts, Amherst) (Brown alum!)

• Poggio Colla (Mugello Valley Archaeological Project)
  o June 27-July 31, 2015
  o http://smu.edu/poggio/
  o PIs: Greg Warden and Ann Steiner (Southern Methodist University / Franklin & Marshall College)

Spain

• Ampurias (Empúries): NE Spain - Catalunya
  o http://www.mac.cat/eng/Branches/Empuries
  o The fieldschool has run for the past 67 years: here is info on last year’s edition: http://www.mac.cat/eng/Branches/Empuries/Events/Courses/67th-Empuries-Archaeology-Course
  o An overview of that history and its aims is here (only in Catalan): http://www.mac.cat/eng/Branches/Empuries/Research-Conservation/Archaeological-Excavations o Course includes lab and class sessions and various fieldtrips; fees are low but may not include accommodation o Very suitable for student without prior experience, numbers negotiable, in July; Spanish and other 5 European participants; English no problem
  o Brown contact: Peter Van Dommelen (peter_van_dommelen@brown.edu)

• La Bastida de les Alcusses (Moixent): E. Spain (Valencia)
  o The Museum of Prehistory works at the site for 4-6 weeks during July-August, mostly with students from the U of Valencia and Alicante and some from other Spanish universities.
  o In principle an all-Spanish/Catalan project, but happy to work with English students. The director Jaime Vives speaks good English and they would get one or two more experienced and English-speaking Spanish grad students from Valencia to look after foreign participants - basic Spanish is nevertheless very useful.
  o There is no formal teaching and this most suitable for students who already have basic to good experience.
