"Animating Archives: Making New Media Matter"

December 3-5, 2009
Pembroke Hall 305
Brown University

SESSIONS:
Cellophane Memories on YouTube
Not Just Open / Source
Targeting Google Earth
Visualizing Visual Culture
Archiving the Future
Animating Histories
Animating Archival Structures

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Diana Taylor, New York University

CONFERENCE SPEAKERS:
James Chandler, University of Chicago
Sharon Daniel, University of California/Santa Cruz
Matthew Fuller, Goldsmiths College, University of London, UK
Marko Gavris, University of California, San Diego
Brian Goldfarb, University of California/San Diego
Melissa Haste, University of California/Santa Cruz
Alexandra Janacek, Florida College
Josh Kun, University of Southern California
Lawrence Liang, Alternative Law Forum, Bangalore, India
Jen Matthes, University of Southern California
Janine Marcheau, York University, Toronto, Canada
Nicholas Negroponte, MIT, New York
Trevor Paglen, University of California/Berkeley
Lisa Parks, University of California/Santa Barbara
John Paul, Michigan University
Abby Smith, University of Virginia
Sanesh Shrinivasan, University of California/Los Angeles
James Tobin, University of Pennsylvania

BROWN UNIVERSITY SPEAKERS:
Sheila Bender, Dean of the Graduate School
Wendy Hui Kyong Chun, Modern Culture and Media
David Cooper, Engineering
Mary Ann Doane, Modern Culture and Media
Harriette Homans, University Librarian
Laurie Kaptan, Modern Culture and Media
Erich Neumann, History of Art & Architecture
Elian Rooney, Modern Culture and Media/English
Maria Rosalea, Modern Culture and Media
Rebecca Schneider, Theatre Arts and Performance Studies
Michael Steinberg, Modern Culture and Media
Michael Steinberg, Cogut Center for the Humanities/History/Music

Open to the public. Handicap accessible.